Utopia/Dystopia: Cinematic Visions of the Future

This seminar will screen, read and discuss a range of utopian/dystopian visions of the future as forecast in our popular cinema, and literature. Our screenings will explore a range of films from 'sci fi' to fantasy and horror, extending from the 1950s to the present, into the 'near and far futures' of technology. We will take on varied questions and issues including, the increasing prevalence of apocalyptic endings to present and future worlds; contrasts between a fragile democratic 'now' vs. an authoritarian techno-future; race, gender and sexuality in the 'scientifically' engineered and overdetermined future; class, labor and social privilege among replicants, cyborgs and humans; the 'post-human condition; the consumption of virtual reality, cyber-sex, and other commodities; post-technological tribalism; future 'hoods & cityscapes; warnings of cyber-surveillance, techno-collapse and eco-disaster. And finally, we will ask: what is 'utopia,' how is it 'imagined,' and is it still possible. We will develop our seminar discussions, screenings and papers with readings from the likes of George Orwell, Ray Kurzweil, Paul Virilio, Aldous Huxley, among others.
