Global Liberal Studies Overview

Please refer to the Virtual Advising Presentation for information about the CAS Core and academic policies and requirements.

If you are an internal transfer student from the Global Liberal Studies (GLS) program, you have possible benefits and exemptions from the CAS Core curriculum, based on the LS/GLS Core classes you have taken. Some of these courses, singularly or in combination, will satisfy CAS Core.

NOTE: If you did not complete the exact courses listed here, there are no exceptions. You must then default to the CAS Core requirements as specified in the Virtual Advising Presentation and CAS Core website. You are NOT allowed to take these –UF courses once you are a CAS student.

CAS Core Curriculum

- 1. First-Year Seminar (Waived for ALL transfers)
- 2. Expository Writing
- 3. Foreign Language
- 4. Foundations of Contemporary Culture (4 courses):
 - I. Texts & Ideas
 - II. Cultures & Contexts
 - III. Societies & the Social Sciences
 - IV. Expressive Culture
- 5. Foundations of Scientific Inquiry (3 courses):
 - I. Quantitative Reasoning
 - II. Physical Science
 - III. Life Science

You must complete each of these individual requirements.

Other CAS Core Options

If you did not take the courses listed in the previous slide, please refer to the CAS Virtual Advising Presentation and Core website for the various ways to satisfy the CAS Core curriculum.

Some options involve taking designated courses, or by completing specific majors or minors.

Majors Equivalencies

Some CAS majors allow for GLS/LS courses to count towards major requirements:

Art History: Arts and Cultures 101 + 102 = 1 major elective

Dramatic Literature: 2 courses toward the major, provided you received a C or higher in Arts and Cultures 101 + 102

English: 2 courses toward the major, provided you received a C or higher in the full Arts and Cultures Sequence

Environmental Studies: ENSTU-UA 101 (Environmental Studies) counts toward the major

European & Mediterranean Studies: Arts and Cultures + Global Works and Society Sequences = 2 courses toward the major

History: Global Works and Society 101 + 102 + 201 = 3 courses toward the major

Politics: Global Works and Society 101 + 102 = 1 major/minor elective

Public Policy: Global Works and Society 101 + 201 = Ethics & Justice requirement for the major

Key takeaway: Discuss the specifics with your major advisor!

Summary

- ▶ Some GLS/LS Core courses can count towards CAS Core and major requirements, but only if taken prior to entry into CAS. Please refer back to this presentation and your CAS advisor or major advisor for more information.
- ▶ Consult the CAS Core website for details:
<http://cas.nyu.edu/core.html>
 - ▶ See “Courses” for course descriptions, and “Exemptions...” for other ways to satisfy CAS Core requirements, etc.
