Global Liberal Studies Overview

The Virtual Advising Presentation applies to you in everyway but please consult this quick presentation for clarification of CAS Core Requirements.

If you are an internal transfer student from the Global Liberal Studies (GLS) program, you have possible benefits and exemptions from the CAS Core curriculum, based on the LS/GLS Core classes you have taken. Some of these courses, singularly or in combination, will satisfy CAS Core.

NOTE: If you did not complete the exact courses listed here, there are no exceptions. You must then default to the CAS Core requirements as specified in the Virtual Advising Presentation and CAS Core website. You are NOT allowed to take these –UF courses once you are a CAS student.

CAS Core Curriculum

- 1. First-Year Seminar (Waived for ALL transfers)
- 2. Expository Writing
- 3. Foreign Language
- 4. Foundations of Contemporary Culture (4 courses):
 - I. Texts & Ideas
 - II. Cultures & Contexts
 - III. Societies & the Social Sciences
 - IV. Expressive Culture
- 5. Foundations of Scientific Inquiry (3 courses):
 - I. Quantitative Reasoning
 - II. Physical Science
 - III. Life Science

You must complete each of these requirements as a CAS student.

GLS/LS CORE – CAS Core equivalencies

- ▶ If you have already taken the courses listed at GLS/LS then this satisfies the corresponding CAS Core requirement.

Other CAS Core Options

If you did not take the courses listed in the previous slide, please refer to the CAS Virtual Advising Presentation and Core website for the various ways to satisfy the CAS Core curriculum.

Some options involve taking designated courses, or by completing specific majors or minors.

Majors Equivalencies

Some CAS majors allow for GLS/LS courses to count towards major requirements:

History: 2 courses towards the History major

- Social Foundations I = Pre-1800 course
- Social Foundations II = Introductory European Elective

English: 2 courses towards the English major

- Cultural Foundations I = Pre-1800 elective
- Cultural Foundations II = 1 advanced elective

Politics: 1 course towards the Politics major

- Social Foundations I + II = 1 Politics elective

Art History: 1 course towards the Art History major

- Cultural Foundations I + II = 1 Art History elective

Summary

- ▶ Some GLS/LS Core courses can count towards CAS Core and major requirements, but only if taken prior to entry into CAS. Please refer back to this presentation and your CAS advisor or major advisor for more information.
- ▶ Consult the CAS Core website for details:
<http://cas.nyu.edu/core.html>
 - ▶ See “Courses” for course descriptions, and “Exemptions...” for other ways to satisfy CAS Core requirements, etc.
